Dear guests,

We hope you are well in this crazy times. We are looking forward to things getting normal and to welcome you in Croatia as our guests. The pandemic situation in Croatia is very favourable and central Istria has been corona free for quite some time now.

As a result of this we have received official confirmation from the borders authorities as of May 11th our guest will be welcomed with a booking confirmation and proof of payment. When entering Croatia guest will be given instruction on how to respect the corona provisions as social distancing etc.

Our villas, restaurant, outdoor activities and towns are open and we are looking forward to your arrival.

Yours Sincerely

Tourist board of central Istria – director
